

Manual 14A / 14E / 14G Changes

Onyinye Caven
Interconnection Projects
Markets and Reliability Committee
June 18, 2020

Clarifying Changes (Manual 14G)

- Clarified existing PJM requirements

Administrative Changes (Manuals 14A, 14E, 14G)

- Identified during periodic manual review
- Updated existing diagrams for readability
- Added new tables and diagrams for clarity

Section	Change
2.2: Attachment Y Requests	Added clarification on the existing requirement for submittal of one-line diagrams stamped by a Professional Engineer in Tariff Attachment Y section 8. One-line diagrams must be stamped by a Professional Engineer licensed in the state where the generating facility is located.
2.4: Site Control	Added clarification that developers are prohibited from submitting evidence of site control of the same land for multiple queue requests unless the total size of such land is adequate to support all facilities contemplated by the queue positions.

Section	Change
1.1	Updated the references to PJM Manuals to align with their current titles
1.3	Updated New Services Queue Swim Lane diagram to improve readability
2.2.1	Added table to clarify queue study windows timeframes Added manual references for interconnection study deposit information
2.3.1	Added diagram to illustrate the New Service Request Deficiency Review timeline.
4.1	Updated section header
4.2, 4.3, 4.6.1, 4.6.2	Added tables to clarify interconnection study milestone dates
4.5.1, 4.5.3, 5.4.4	Renumbered existing exhibits
5.5.2	Clarified Specific Process Flow and Timeline

Section	Change
1.1	Updated section header Updated the references to PJM Manuals to align with their current titles
1.3	Updated New Services Queue Swim Lane diagram to improve readability

Section	Change
1.1	Updated the references to PJM Manuals to align with their current titles
1.3	Updated New Services Queue Swim Lane diagram to improve readability
2.1	Updated section title

