

Interconnection Construction Service Agreement (ICSA) Superseding Language and Automatic Termination Provision

Mark Sims, Manager, Infrastructure
Coordination

Markets and Reliability Committee
March 29, 2021

- PC first read review and feedback
 - March PC meeting

- Review Solution Proposal (slide 4)
 - Posted with today's materials

- Review Proposed Tariff Language
 - Posted with today's materials

PJM OATT – Attachment P – Interconnection Construction Service Agreement (ICSA)

Action Required	Deadline	Who May Be Affected
PC first read	3/9/2021 (complete)	PJM Transmission Owners and Generation Interconnection Customers
PC feedback to Issue Charge and Solution Proposal	3/12/2021 (feedback received)
MRC first read of Solution Proposal	3/29/2021
PC endorsement	4/6/2021
MRC endorsement	4/21/2021
MC endorsement	5/3/2021

- ICSA Superseding Language
 - Revise PJM Tariff, Attachment P, section 1 to account for circumstances when an ICSA supersedes an already-effective ICSA
 - Mirroring language in PJM Tariff, Attachment O, section 1
- ICSA Automatic Termination Provision
 - Revise PJM Tariff, Attachment P, Appendix 2, section 14.1.1 to make termination contingent upon: (1) PJM receiving notice of the occurrence of the four conditions; and, for ICSAs on file with the Commission, (2) PJM cancelling such ICSAs in accordance with Commission rules and regulations

PJM Tariff, Attachment P – ICSA

Secretary:
Dave Anders, David.Anders@pjm.com

SME/Presenter:
Mark Sims, Mark.Sims@pjm.com

Alejandro Bautista,
Alejandro.Bautista@pjm.com

Interconnection Construction Service
Agreement Superseding Language and Automatic Termination Provision

Member Hotline

(610) 666 – 8980

(866) 400 – 8980

custsvc@pjm.com