

Critical Substation Planning Analysis

 If preliminary approval not required then proceed to develop confidential portion of project

* If project or portions of project are available for competition then preliminary approval is required to open RFP process for that project or portion of the project. Both portions of the project are presented to the Board to determine if the entire project is to be approved preliminarily.