Legend

- Start Date
- ◆ End Date

- On April 2nd, Order 831 – Offer Verification was approved by FERC, with an implementation date 10 days later (April 12)
- Starting with the April 12 Market Day, the incremental energy offer price cap in Markets Gateway changed to $1,000/MWh (from $2,000/MWh) for all schedules (Cost-based, Priced-based, and Price PLS schedules), for both daily and hourly offers (Generator > Schedule > Offer and Generator > Schedule > Offer Details)
- As discussed previously, PJM has implemented a manual process for the verification of all incremental cost-based offers over $1000, which became effective with the April 12 Market Day
- If you anticipate the need to submit a Cost-based offer over $1,000 please become familiar with the Offer Screening and Exception Process by reviewing the Offer Verification Instructions and Guidelines on the Offer Verification Webpage
 - Participant submits offer curve via Markets Gateway or XML, where all desired segments greater than $1,000/MWh, are set equal to $1,000/MWh.
 - Participant fills out template and submits via SharePoint site
 - PJM evaluates information and communicates segments approved
 - Participant resubmits offer curve via Markets Gateway or XML reflecting the approved segments values
- Automated process targeted for late September
