

General Updates

Jim Gluck

December 17, 2018

- 12/17 – Data Miner 2 (UI and API) became inaccessible after an error occurred during the release process. Release was backed out.
- 12/11 – Instantaneous load and LMP values incorrect or unavailable in Data Viewer due to technical issue with model build. Components updated to remove issue.
- 12/6 – Some users disconnected from DR Hub or unable to connect due to a certificate issue resulting from human error.
