

Reliability Standards and Compliance Subcommittee
Webex/Conference Call
July 22, 2022
9:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m. EPT

Administration (9:00-9:15)

1. Welcome and Announcements

Monica Burkett, PJM, informed the group that a communication was sent for actions required on the NERC Reliability standard TPL-001-5 by Friday, August 5. She also reminded the group that the PJM team is reviewing best practices and will be reaching out to a few attendees for presenting at the September RSCS meeting.

- A. Ashwini Bhat and Monica Burkett reviewed Antitrust Guidelines, Code of Conduct, Public Meetings/Media Participation, and Webex Participant Identification Requirements.
- B. They also indicated that a Webex report will be used to capture meeting attendance
- C. Ashwini Bhat reviewed the agenda for the meeting. The agenda was approved with no objections and no abstentions.
- D. Monica Burkett reviewed minutes from the June 10, 2022, RSCS meeting. The minutes were approved with no objections and no abstentions.

PJM Compliance Activities (9:15-9:35)

2. Manual Updates

- A. There are no manual updates

3. Stanley Sliwa, PJM, provided an overview of the criteria to establish acceptable system steady state voltage performance during a GMD event per TPL-007-4 Requirement R3. He discussed the steady state voltage criteria established pursuant to PJM Manual 03, 14B, and 39 along with steady state voltage performance stages 1 (Initial Condition), stage 2 (GMD Event) and stage 3 (GMD Event with Outages). Please refer to the presentation for further details.
4. Michael Herman, PJM, provided an update regarding the upcoming language change in FAC-003-5. He discussed PJM's initial thoughts, regarding the implementation of FAC-003-5 in planning analysis, based on an updated version of this standard. Michael also mentioned that PJM intends to come to RSCS with documentation and exact process and also request Facility Owners to provide this information, mostly in October time and request for feedback.

Antitrust:

You may not discuss any topics that violate, or that might appear to violate, the antitrust laws including but not limited to agreements between or among competitors regarding prices, bid and offer practices, availability of service, product design, terms of sale, division of markets, allocation of customers or any other activity that might unreasonably restrain competition. If any of these items are discussed the chair will re-direct the conversation. If the conversation still persists, parties will be asked to leave the meeting or the meeting will be adjourned.

Code of Conduct:

As a mandatory condition of attendance at today's meeting, attendees agree to adhere to the PJM Code of Conduct as detailed in PJM Manual M-34 section 4.5, including, but not limited to, participants' responsibilities and rules regarding the dissemination of meeting discussion and materials.

Public Meetings/Media Participation:

Unless otherwise noted, PJM stakeholder meetings are open to the public and to members of the media. Members of the media are asked to announce their attendance at all PJM stakeholder meetings at the beginning of the meeting or at the point they join a meeting already in progress. Members of the Media are reminded that speakers at PJM meetings cannot be quoted without explicit permission from the speaker. PJM Members are reminded that "detailed transcriptional meeting notes" and white board notes from "brainstorming sessions" shall not be disseminated. Stakeholders are also not allowed to create audio, video or online recordings of PJM meetings. PJM may create audio, video or online recordings of stakeholder meetings for internal and training purposes, and your participation at such meetings indicates your consent to the same.

Participant Identification in Webex:

When logging into the Webex desktop client, please enter your real first and last name as well as a valid email address. Be sure to select the "call me" option. PJM support staff continuously monitors Webex connections during stakeholder meetings. Anonymous users or those using false usernames or emails will be dropped from the teleconference.
