

Capacity Senior Task Force (CSTF)

Summary of June 2012 vote

Please select one option regarding the development of business rules for a Long-Term Capacity Auction by the Capacity Senior Task Force (CSTF).

- A. Stop - Stop working on development of a Long-Term Capacity Auction.
- B. Continue - Continue working on development of a Long-Term Capacity Auction.

If the group continues the development of business rules for a Long-Term Capacity Auction, which of the following timelines is most preferable.

- A. Continue; current timeline - Continue working on development of a Long-Term Capacity Auction for an August 1, 2012 FERC Filing date in order to implement prior to the 2013 BRA.
- B. Continue; pre-2013 BRA Target - Continue working on development of a Long-Term Capacity Auction and target an October 1, 2012 FERC Filing date in order to implement prior to the 2013 BRA.
- C. Continue; pre-2014 BRA Target - Continue working on development of a Long-Term Capacity Auction and target an October 1, 2013, or earlier, FERC Filing date in order to implement prior to the 2014 BRA.

- 128 companies responded - members and affiliates

Stop or continue work on the development of a Long-Term Capacity Auction (LTCA)

Stop	51	39.8%
Continue	77	60.2%

If continue, which timeline is most preferable for implementation?

Current Timeline: file by Aug 1, 2012	2	1.6%
Pre-2013 BRA: file by Oct 1 2012	19	14.8%
Pre-2014 BRA: file by Oct 1, 2013 or earlier	107	83.6%

Voting Details: Question 1

Stop or continue development of a LTCA?

■ Stop ■ Continue

Voting Details: Question 2

Which timeline is most preferable?

■ Current timeline ■ Pre-2013 BRA ■ Pre-2014 BRA

