

Capacity Senior Task Force (CSTF) Summary of January 2013 poll

Please select one option regarding the development of business rules for a Multi-year Pricing Mechanism by the Capacity Senior Task Force (CSTF).

Continue - Continue working on development of a Multi-year Pricing Mechanism.	69%	103
Stop - Stop working on development of a Multi-year Pricing Mechanism or any changes to NEPA.	31%	47
Total votes		150

Question #1: Sector Breakdown

Total Votes

■ Electric Distributor   
 ■ Other Supplier   
 ■ End Use Customer   
 ■ Generation Owner   
 ■ Transmission Owner

Question #1: Sector Breakdown

% of sector's total votes

■ Electric Distributor   
 ■ Other Supplier   
 ■ End Use Customer   
 ■ Generation Owner   
 ■ Transmission Owner

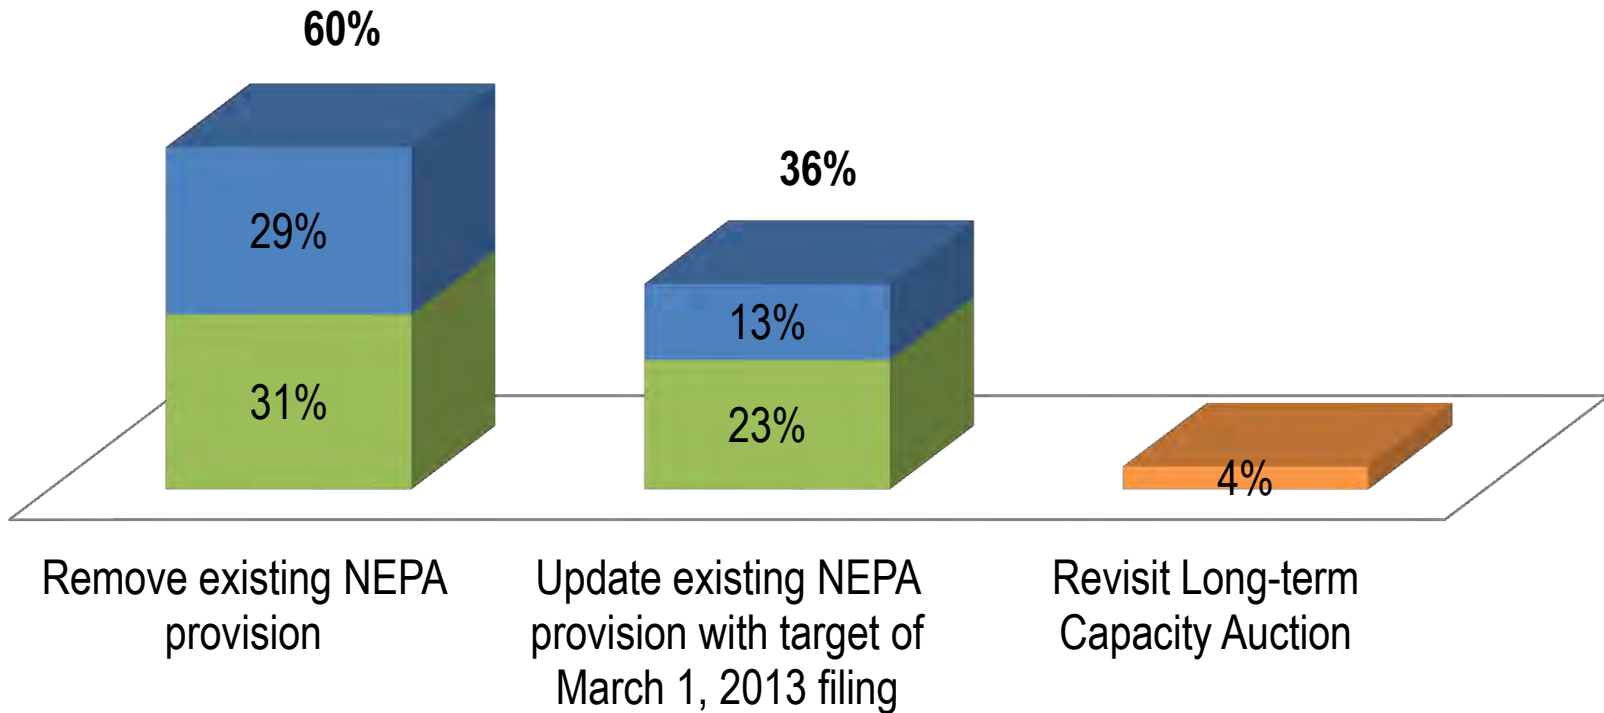

If the group continues the development of business rules for a Multi-year Pricing Mechanism, which of the following approaches is preferred.

60%	Remove existing NEPA provision	A - continue working on other Multi-year Pricing Mechanism proposals with the target date of a May 31, 2013 filing (Packages 1, 2, 4, and 6). 31%
		B - stop working (Package 3). 29%
36%	Update existing NEPA provision with target of March 1, 2013 filing	C - continue working on other packages. 23%
		D - stop working on other packages. 13%
4%	E - Revisit Long-term Capacity Auction concept and develop business rules.

Voting Details: Question #2

■ and continue working
 ■ and stop working

Voting Details: Question #2

Total votes = 150

■ and continue working   ■ and stop working

Question #2: Sector Breakdown

- A - Remove and continue
- B - Remove and stop
- C - Update and continue
- D - Update and stop
- E - Long-term Capacity Auction

Question #2: Sector Breakdown

Total Votes

■ Electric Distributor   
 ■ Other Supplier   
 ■ End Use Customer   
 ■ Generation Owner   
 ■ Transmission Owner

Question #2: Sector Breakdown

% of sector's total votes

